SUMMARY

Jim Aycock is an accomplished trial attorney whose practice includes a wide variety of complex commercial litigation matters in state and federal courts, as well as domestic and international arbitrations, for both plaintiffs and defendants. Jim's practice focuses primarily on financial litigation, real estate disputes, partnership and shareholder disputes, business tort litigation, premises and product liability cases, HOA litigation, and general commercial collection matters.

Jim's broad-based litigation practice and previous career in the banking industry allows him to understand both the client's business needs and financial objectives. In connection with his financial litigation practice, he has significant experience in intercreditor disputes, lien enforcement, complex collection matters, lender liability claims, and asset seizures for various financial institutions.

Additionally, Jim is a certified mediator, having completed his mediation training at the Blakely Advocacy Institute at the University of Houston Law Center.
